time. Unterscheidung between passion and pleasure is important. Passion is driven by love, not by money. It's not about the money, it's about the work. The most successful people work hard, but they also have fun doing it. Focus is key. It's not about being a workaholic, it's about pushing yourself mentally and physically. Push through shyness and self-doubt. Serving others is a key to getting rich. Ideas are valuable, but it's not magic, it's just doing some simple things. Persistence is the number one reason for success.
